Notice: Among the attributes of a Public Library, or Library of an educational institution, or archives or library of a State or Federal government, is the right to make a single copy of a copyrighted work for preservation purposes and for use by patrons of the library. Any other use, reproduction, or distribution of this work is prohibited.